Here To There eNews / Update 5B to Newsletter 5 – A Quick Update
Thursday, 21st September 2017

My business-and-life partner Caroline, Piglet The Arab and myself, on the Dundee United Experience - a stadium tour run by the Dundee United Business Club. Taken by Tom on my camera, we're in the dug-o... sorry, technical area! (There are also some of Piglet in the Boardroom on Facebook somewhere...!)

Hello everyone!

Okay, this is a quick catchup...

... We were scheduled to be on holiday from Saturday 16th to Friday 29th August 2017. This, however, was the plan. However I had to leave about a week early at very short notice. This meant I was unable to finish the items I'd intended (and promised) to our customers, as being "before the holiday". Caroline needed a few days on her own, after her recent redundancy news, and this extra week was to give her that break.

At the same time, I was therefore unable to mention this on our website, or send an email newsletter, because of the change of plans (as I only had the mobile for the extra week).

Subsequently when we got back, she had the lurgy for one week, and then I had the same the following week! I am only now catching up today, and this newsletter is on the hit list too!

In relation to our own plans, some of you know we did say we were heading north in November once more, for my sister's 30th birthday bash (not actually on the birthday!) However, this is the same weekend as the Enfield Transport Sale on Saturday 18th November, which we will now be unable to attend. Sorry. We won't be at the quasi-replacement for the LOTS ATS called Aldenham Transport Spectacular (not even in Aldenham, but two towns away?) either, as all the stall space was gone before we heard out about the event!!!

But it's not all doom and gloom – we did have a good two/three weeks ago! I've got most of the photos up on Suzy's Facebook albums page, but I am a bit behind with updating Facebook today.

Now – book news – all Pocket Guides have been done and posted out. If you've not had yours, get in touch and I will chase up another set!

Bedfordshire Comprehensive Guide – we did get some printed, with the intention of cutting, punching, filing and mailing the lot out. However, with the short notice change of plans, they've not yet gone out. I intend to get these all posted away in the next week.

Tayside Comprehensive Guide – got some printed off, and we intend to get these away in the next week.

London Index and London Comprehensive Guide – as I was unable to finish the proof reading and updating. I hope to get this done in the next fortnight, and get them away. The date (of the stand-alone Index) that it is up to is the 31st July 2017, and for sake of catching up, I will leave it at that.

Steven Knight – everything we took pre-orders for has been sent out. If you've not had yours yet, please get in touch with me, and I can chase this up with Steve.

If there is anything we've missed – please get in touch!
